

AMAZING FAITHS DINNER AND DIALOGUE

Join members of many faiths in an illuminating discussion of what religion means in each of our traditions. This is a special program offered in many communities across the country. The Dialogue of the Amazing Faiths Dinner was first organized in 2006 by Dr. Jill Carroll who was at that time the Executive Director of the Boniuk Center for Religious Tolerance at Rice University in Houston. In Harrisburg, this discussion is sponsored by The Religion and Society Center, and hosted by St. Stephen's Episcopal Cathedral.

Please join us for the fourth annual Amazing Faiths Dinner and Dialogue. No matter what your age, your faith (or your lack thereof), let's talk about why our particular faith or lack of faith is important to us as individuals. The Dialogue is characterized by respect for and interest in the faith experiences of others.

5:45 p.m. Registration
6:00 p.m. Welcome and Dinner
7:00 p.m. Breakout Groups
8:15 p.m. Joint Discussion
9:00 p.m. Adjournment

St. Stephen's Episcopal Cathedral is in the 200 block of North Front Street in Harrisburg. Parking is available on the surface lot at River Street and Cranberry Alley behind the Dauphin County Bar Association and the large city parking garage in the 200 block of N. Second Street. Street parking is often available on Pine Street and Locust Street between Front and Second Streets

Enter the two white double doors of St. Stephen's Episcopal School on Cranberry Alley, turn right inside to the elevator, press 3, and the doors will open at the Uppercroft on the third floor to your right. If no one is there to open the white School door, ring the buzzer at the left of the white double doors. When you hear the buzz, pull the door open, and proceed to the elevator. There is a handicapped ramp to the doors.
